How does monthly Direct Debit work?

Direct Debit is a convenient and flexible way to spread the payments on your energy account across the year, helping you to stay on top of your costs. We want to help you make sure you pay just the right amount for your energy. To do that, we'll do a check to make sure your monthly payments are at the right level, roughly at the same time your meter reading is due. In your first year we'll do this in anything from 1 to 7 months' time, whenever your first meter reading is due after you've been on supply for 28 days. After that, we'll review how much you're paying every 6 months and you'll receive a statement which gives you an update. That way, if you're building up too much debit or credit, we can let you know and adjust your Direct Debit by the right amount.

The enclosed leaflet tells you more. And we've made a series of short video guides to help explain. You can view these at npower.com/dde

Keeping your payments up to date

Hopefully, you won't ever have any problems keeping up your payments, but if you do, speak to one of our friendly advisors on 0800 073 3000 or mobile 0330 100 3000 and they'll do all they can to give you help and advice.

Yours sincerely

Direct Debit Guarantee

This Guarantee is offered by all banks and building societies that pay Direct Debits.

1. If there are any changes to the amount, date or frequency of your Direct Debit, npower will notify you 10 working days in advance of your account being debited or as otherwise agreed. If you ask npower to collect a payment, we'll confirm the amount and date at the time of the request.
2. If an error is made by npower or your bank or building society, you are entitled to a full and immediate refund of the amount paid by Direct Debit from your bank or building society.
3. If you receive a refund you're not entitled to, you must pay it back when npower asks you to.
4. You can cancel a Direct Debit at any time by simply contacting your bank or building society. Written confirmation may be required. Please also notify us.

Making sure your regular payment is at the right amount

We want to help you make sure you pay just the right amount for your energy. To do that, we'll do a check to make sure your regular payments are at the right level, roughly every 6 months at the same time your meter reading is due.

You'll receive a statement which gives you an update. That way, if you're building up too much debit or credit, we can let you know and adjust your regular payment by the right amount.

Your credit rating

If you miss or are late in making a payment on your account, we may share your payment information with credit reference agencies, in line with your terms and conditions.

This may affect your credit rating and may affect your ability to get credit in the future.

Online account services

Why not sign up for an online account, so you can view your bills online whenever you want, with paperless billing.

Because we can't collect your meter readings automatically, (unless you have a smart meter) you may want to sign up for reminders. We'll automatically send you a reminder when it's just the right time to read your meter, and this could mean an end to estimated bills.
